

HOSPITAL SHIP TORPEDOED.—The homeward bound Ambulance Transport Warilda (Captain James Sim, master) was torpedoed and sunk August 3rd. There were 123 lives lost, including seven members of the crew, the Warilda was a vessel of 7,713 tons, owned by the Adelaide Steamship Company.